

BOUDREAUX -Project Managers Wanted in Columbia and Charlotte!

Join our thriving team as we cultivate relationships, design inspiring places and enrich communities throughout the Carolinas from both our Columbia and Charlotte studios.

BOUDREAUX is looking for creative, driven, and resourceful individuals to be part of project teams through design and construction. We are seeking a project manager with a minimum of 4 years of experience managing projects and either currently licensed (preferred) or quickly on the path to licensure. Excellent communication and organizational skills are a must along with a passion for collaboration, team building, and a focus on producing quality work. Strong Revit and technical detailing skills are preferred along with a working knowledge and experience with all phases of a project design cycle.

BOUDREAUX is a team of industry leaders focused in higher education, faith-based, workplace, local government, and historic preservation markets. We are powered by an enthusiastic team with studios in Columbia and Charlotte. Founded in 1976, our company will celebrate 50 years of impact across the Carolinas in 2026. We work collaboratively across both studios to bring the best of what we have to offer to each project and client. This position is available in either our Columbia or Charlotte location.

Why BOUDREAUX?

With foundational focuses on work-life balance and professional growth and development, we strive to create a family friendly, collaborative environment for our team members to learn and thrive in. We also offer:

- Competitive compensation with a great benefits package
- Flexible working hours
- 401(k) plan with match
- Opportunity to help develop and curate your own professional development program
- PTO, sick time, comp time, and holidays
- Continuing education support

Ready to join us? Send your resume, design portfolio, and references to Heather Mitchell, President, at jointheteam@boudreauxgroup.com.
